Numismatic Collection

OF

J. N. T. LEVICK,

NEW-YORK.

PHILADELPHIA, 48 NORTH TENTH STREET,
1st April, 1865.

MY DEAR SIR:

In accordance with your request, I have examined the collection of coins that you intend offering for public competition during the present month, and I am glad to say that the representation of the pieces is such as will give unqualified satisfaction to the collectors. If the success of the sale depends upon the truthfulness of the condition of the pieces, there can be no doubt whatever of the result.

Yours, faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

CENTS AND HALF CENTS.

This set of Cents and Half Cents merits the attention of collectors of these series, and will amply pay any one viewing the collection, to examine the pieces minutely, and detect, if possible, any misrepresentation of their condition. They are, if anything, under, than overrated, and although special notice is drawn to the Cents and Half Cents, the rest of the collection is none less worthy the same claims of observation. Parties not attending the sale can trust with entire confidence as to the truthfulness relative to condition, and doubtlessly be agreeably disappointed upon receipt of the pieces ordered.

1347 1793 Lib. Cap, very good for this date, formerly in Mr. Mickley's set.
1348 1793 Ameri., fair impression, black.
1349 1793 Link, rather better, black tinge.
1350 1793 Wreath, very good imp., rubbed on hair, "Ty" opposite the forehead.

1351 1793 Wreath, poor, "Liberty" close and directly over the head, dif. leaf under the head.
1352 1794 Double chin, very fine, or quite unc., close date, from the McCoy sale.
1353 1794 Very fine, stronger imp. than above, spread date.
1354 1795 Thick die, fine for date, dark color (not easy to get a better one without paying dearly for it).
1355 1795 Thin, very fine or really uncirculated.
1356 1795 Thin, "One Cent," high, not quite so fine, almost uncir.
1357 1796 Lib. Cap, dark color, very fair specimen.
1358 1797 Entirely uncirculated, very little tarnished.
1359 1798 Very fine, but very slightly circulated.
1360 1799 One of the finest yet offered for sale (based upon Mr. Cogan and the owner's opinions).
1361 1800 Very good impression, dark brown color.
1362 1800 Over the "9," good, black.

Numismatic Collection

OF

J. S. T. LEWIS, Esq.

FORMED

PHILADELPHIA, 48 NORTH TENTH STREET,
1*st April*, 1865.

MY DEAR SIR:

In accordance with your request, I have examined the collection of coins that you intend offering for public competition during the present month, and I am glad to say that the representation of the pieces is such as will give unqualified satisfaction to the collectors. If the success of the sale depends upon the truthfulness of the condition of the pieces, there can be no doubt whatever of the result.

Yours faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

To J. N. T. LEVICK, Esq.,

New-York.

PHILADELPHIA, 48 NORTH TENTH STREET,
4*th April*, 1865.

DEAR SIR:

In reply to your inquiry in your letter of yesterday's date, respecting the publication of my letter of the 1st inst., I have only to say that you are quite at liberty to do so, and shall be glad if it should prove of any service to you.

Yours, faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

To J. N. T. LEVICK, Esq.,

New-York.

PHILADELPHIA, 48 NORTH TENTH STREET,
27*th April*, 1865.

In consequence of the unsettled state of the public mind, caused by the assassination of our late President, the sale of MR. J. N. T. LEVICK'S COINS, advertised to take place at Messrs. Bangs, Merwin & Co., in New-York, this week, is postponed until Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 29th, 30th, and 31st, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Yours, faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

The two copies are identical except for the date of the sale (postponed from April to May on account of the murder of the President)
